

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Seiichi SHIMASAKI

Present Position: Director, Office for Nuclear Fuel Cycles and Decommissioning,
Research and Development Bureau,
Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT)

Date of Birth: November 12, 1974

Business Experiences:

2021.8	Present Position
2018.7	Science Counselor, Science Section, Embassy of Japan
2017.7	Director for Radioactive Waste Management Policy, and Nuclear Non-Proliferation Science and Technology, Research and Development Bureau
2015.7	Director, S&T Budget Planning and Coordination, Budget and Accounts Division
2014.7	Director, Office for particle and Nuclear Research Promotion, Basic Research Promotion Division, Research Promotion Bureau
2013.7	Deputy Director, Research and Development Policy Division, Research and Development Bureau
2010.7	First Secretary (Nuclear Attaché), Science Section, Embassy of Japan in the USA
2008.9	Deputy Director, Ocean and Earth Division, Research and Development Bureau
2006.7	Senior Specialist, Office for Public Relations and Press
2004.7	Senior Specialist, Personal Division
2002.4	Unit Chief, Office for Special Coordination Funds for Promoting S&T, Science and Technology Policy Bureau
2001.4	Nuclear Safety Division, Science and Technology Policy Bureau
2001.1	Nuclear Fuel Cycle Research and Development Division, Research and Development Bureau, MEXT*
	*STA was merged with the Ministry of Education into the MEXT in January 2001 due to government reform
2000.4	Power Reactor Development Division, Atomic Energy Bureau, STA
1999.4	Planning Division, Atomic Energy Bureau, Science and Technology Agency (STA)

Academic Experiences:

1997.3	Bachelor's Degree of Information Engineering, Soka University, Japan
1999.3	Master's Degree of Science and Engineering, Tokyo Institute of Technology, Japan
2006.5	Master's Degree, International Relations/International Economics, Johns Hopkins University (SAIS), USA