

Outline of JAEA Library

- To collect and provide reference information related to the Fukushima Accident
- To publish technical reports originated from JAEA's R&D results and distribute them widely in Japan and abroad
- To collect and provide library materials as nuclear information center
- To collect and provide information in the fields of nuclear science from all over the world

Support R&D related to the Fukushima Daiichi nuclear power station accident

We provide JAEA R&D Results and reference information (about 19,000 items), indexed by subjects to support R&D related to the Fukushima Accident.

JAEA Research Results

JAEA creates JAEA Reports and contributes papers to scientific journals every year. Bibliographic data and abstracts of these about 80,000 research results are available, and you can download full-text data (PDF format) of JAEA Reports. And JAEA R&D Review is available which aims at informing you about the current topics of R&D of JAEA every year.

IAEA/INIS Activity

The INIS is operated by IAEA in collaboration with 128 member states and 24 international organizations and the INIS database contains about 3.6 million bibliographic records. JAEA Library assumes a role of INIS National Center for Japan. We arrange bibliographic records about nuclear related literatures published in Japan, and provide them to INIS Database. Besides, we make effort to promote utilizations of INIS database in Japan.

JAEA Library Twitter

We tweet the latest information about JAEA R&D Results and Internet information related the Fukushima Accident
